FREE EARLY YEARS TRAINING 2009

Do you work in an early years setting or with foundation aged children?

Would you like to learn new skills and develop confidence in using music and the arts with the children that you work with?

If so then this one day training opportunity is for you....

artSprouts is a unique multi-arts resource made in partnership with arts practitioners and early years teachers from Plymouth Children Centres. The arts and music activities are based on an original story and the resource is jam packed with accessible and exciting activities.

There are 3 days available as follows:

Wednesday 24th June: For all children's centre and nursery staff

Wednesday 1st July: For foundation teachers and teaching assistants

Wednesday 8th July: For foundation teachers and teaching assistants

Times - 10.00-3.00pm

Venue - Plymouth Music Zone, Brickfields, Raglan Road, Plymouth, PL1 4NQ

Cost - FREE! includes a (wipe clean!) copy of the resource as well as tasty buffet lunch

For more information or to book a place on one of these days please contact Glyn Fuge at Plymouth Music Zone on the number below. Please note that places are limited and are being allocated on a first come first served basis.
